Lech & Jaroslaw Kaczynski New Internationalist 4/1/2007
 Job: President and Prime Minister of Poland respectively
 Reputation: Ultra-Catholic, populist, right wing, anti-communist, anti-free-market, anti-Russian, vengeful yokels that don't understand modern Europe. They're anti-gay and pro-Iraq War, fervent Catholics and free-market sceptics, they want to bring back the death penalty and ban abortion even for rape victims.

Assignment:

Assemble in 7 groups consisting of 1 American and 2 Polish respectively 2 German negotiators. American guests help their Polish and German counterparts to understand the above texts and cartoons. Afterwards the groups discuss the issue that is formulated in the headline and write down short statements reflecting the results of their negotiations pointing out the differences – if any – between the American, Polish and German positions. Following the negotiations, each group present their findings to the plenary assembly.
