

V

I distinctly told you – next Saturday!

© Daily Mirror.

VIII. Put the term which is in brackets into the right position:

1. I wrote down the details. (quickly)
2. The robber was caught by the police. (quickly)
3. Teachers know their pupils well. (usually)
4. I go to the movies. (often)
5. I had a meal. (after school / at a restaurant)
6. We travelled. (to America / last summer)
7. I want to eat an apple. (only)
8. I dream the same dream. (frequently)

IX. Translate:

1. Witnessing a mugging (zufälliger Zeuge eines Raubüberfalls) a young doctor came to the help of an old lady.

2. Seeing a robust man struggling brutally with an old lady crying for help in the street,

3. he jumped forward, holding the mugger by the shoulders.

4. Feeling uncertain if he could hold the mugger he shouted for help.

5. Hearing the shouts a policeman rushed to their help. Though now having to fight against two men the mugger managed to escape in the end.
